

PROGRAM COORDINATOR I*
(Hospital/Strategic National Stockpile Coordinator)
Health Department

Applications must be received via mail, fax, e-mail or in person by 5:00 p.m. on November 22, 2004. POSTMARKS ARE NOT ACCEPTED.

* This is a limited duration "project" position with funding through August 2005.

THE JOB

The Program Coordinator I is responsible for improving the connectivity and capacity for emergency response between Region IV local public health jurisdictions and health care partners, community health centers, and tribes; enhance coordination and partnerships between the health care community and traditional emergency response agencies to ensure integrated response to terrorist acts, infectious disease outbreaks, mass casualty incidents, and other public health threats. The Program Coordinator I will serve as the liaison between Region IV local health jurisdictions, regional hospitals, and Regional EMS/Trauma Council in disaster response planning; assist hospitals, community health centers and local tribes and work closely with local Regional EMS and Trauma Council to update and refine emergency plans, including surveillance, communication and laboratory procedures; participate with the Regional Emergency Response Coordinator, other local health jurisdictions and health care partners to develop the mass vaccination and resource mobilization plan for activation following a bioterrorism event, including planning for use of Strategic National Stockpile assets; participate as a member of the Portland area Metropolitan Medical Response System (MMRS) hospital planning group. Organizational responsibilities include understanding and promoting the public health mission of the Department; providing courteous, respectful, efficient customer service to all Health Department clients; honoring diversity of all department employees and constituents; participating in Health Department training; striving for personal excellence in public health work.

QUALIFICATIONS

The position requires a bachelor's degree in a health-related or management field and one year of related experience. The ideal candidate will have excellent communication, negotiation, and facilitation skills; strong technical writing and organizational skills and related experience and familiarity with:

- The hospital environment, clinical public health, or health-related field, including clinical laboratory operations; writing disaster response/recovery plans, preferably in a medical or governmental setting; working with diverse constituencies; designing, implementing, and evaluating programs and projects; development of strategic and tactical plans; use of computer software, including commonly used office applications.
- Public health surveillance procedures, communicable disease, case investigation, and clinical guidelines. Familiarity with FEMA and/or Homeland Security procedures and policies regarding emergency preparedness and response.

All combinations of education, experience, and training that demonstrate the ability to perform the work will be considered.

SALARY

The salary range is $3,650 - $5,157 per month. It is the general policy of the County to start employees in the lower or middle sections of the salary range. Clark County provides a generous benefits package, which includes medical and dental insurance, paid holidays, vacation, sick leave and retirement.

SELECTION PROCESS

1. Application Review: (Pass/Fail) – All applicants must complete a Clark County application and submit it to the Human Resources department by 5:00 p.m. on the closing date. Incomplete applications will not pass the application review. Candidates deemed most qualified will be invited to participate in the remainder of the selection process.
2. Oral Interview: (Weighted 100%) - The interview will be job related and may include, but not be limited to, the qualifications outlined in the job announcement.

REQUEST AND/OR SUBMIT APPLICATION MATERIALS TO:

To apply, all application materials must be submitted by 5:00 p.m. on the filing date listed on the front of the recruitment announcement. POSTMARKS ARE NOT ACCEPTED. A Clark County application is required unless otherwise noted and supplemental materials (i.e., answers to supplemental questions, cover letter, etc.) may be required and must be submitted with the application. Please read application materials thoroughly to determine application requirements.
